

THE COURAGEOUS PEOPLE REVIVER

STOP SLAVERY: CHANGING LIVES THROUGH SUSTAINABLE SUPPLY CHAINS

In this powerful keynote, Sarah tackles the issue of modern slavery with courage and energy. She makes a difficult topic inspiring and easy to understand, while also unpacking the risk to business, operations and supply chains if modern slavery is not addressed. Speaking from first hand experience of working with survivors of human trafficking, Sarah sheds light on this dark side of humanity.

This keynote is aimed at procurement and supply chain professionals, C-Suite and board members who need to comply with the Modern Slavery Act. It also includes people within companies who want to make an impact on modern slavery and who seek a sustainable and ethical workplace. This also applies to the health workforce, and addressing modern slavery in health supply chains.

KEY TAKEAWAYS:

- An understanding of what Modern Slavery is and how it impacts supply chains
- A clear outline of how to comply with the Modern Slavery Act
- Addressing modern slavery risk in supply chains could save money, save your reputation, and save lives
- How we can start complying with the Modern Slavery Act using the STOP Slavery model:

- S State the Risks
- T Take Action
- O Outline the Consultation Process
- P Propose an Action Plan

SLAVERY

“

SARAH'S ENGAGING STYLE, REAL-WORLD KNOWLEDGE AND UNDERSTANDING OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS WAS EXTREMELY WELL-RECEIVED BY OUR AUDIENCE.

”

-CEO,
CONSULT AUSTRALIA