

THE COURAGEOUS PEOPLE REVIVER

THRIVING LOCAL AND GLOBAL TEAMS

In this inspiring keynote you will embark on a transformative journey to enhance workplace culture. Delving into the intricacies of fostering courage within local and global teams, this session explores the shared humanity that binds us all. By addressing the pressing issue of the 50 million people currently living in modern slavery, the audience is inspired to channel our collective courage into meaningful action.

Through compelling insights and actionable strategies, you will gain a profound understanding of how cultivating a Culture of COURAGE not only uplifts your immediate work environment but also contributes to a global movement against modern slavery. As we look out at the needs of others, our own lives are enriched, fostering connection and purpose. This empowering message inspires individuals to champion change, fortify workplace cultures, and make a positive impact on a global scale, so that we can see thriving workplaces – everywhere.

This session is ideal for anyone thinking about how to inspire purpose into their own teams, and how to bring more of the S in ESG into their events.

KEY TAKEAWAYS:

- Having a mindset that inspires
- Inspiring your local team with a culture of COURAGE
- Taking action towards a thriving global team
- Changing mindsets around including the people in your supply chains as your global team
