

ESG STRATEGY COURSE

THE PROBLEM

In an age of increased ESG reporting for organisations, many industry leaders are unaware of the issues and how to put in place the right strategy for effective change management.

Due to the number of impact areas, each with their own levels of complexity, it can be difficult to know where to begin. Industry leaders need skills training and assistance in strategic planning to meet the growing needs of ESG reporting.

THIS TRAINING IS FOR YOUR ORGANISATION IF

You want to get ready for ESG reporting but don't know where to begin.

You need assistance in creating an ESG strategy for your team or business.

You see the potential of adding an ESG strategy to your graduate credentials.

You need your business to retain its licence to operate by integrating ESG reporting requirements.
